

For the Hair

Are you so fortunate as to be well satisfied with your hair? Is it long enough, thick enough, rich enough? And your hair does not fall out? Well, that is good. But you may know of some not so fortunate. Then just tell them about Ayer's Hair Vigor. They will surely thank you after using it, if not before. Remember, it does not color the hair. Show the list of ingredients to your doctor. Let him decide their value. He knows.

Makes the Nation Gasp.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25 cents at Crenshaw & Young.

O. M. Elliott went to Kansas City Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cannady left Friday for Yates Center, Kansas, to visit relatives and to attend the Scott-Cannady wedding.

Move On Now

says a policeman to a street crowd, and whacks heads if it don't. "Move on now," says the big, harsh mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering follows. (Dr. King's New Life Pills don't) bulldoze the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25 cents at Crenshaw & Young.

Miss Annie Chamberlain went to Kansas City Friday to spend the day.

Mrs. Robert Davis left Friday morning for an extended visit in Chicago.

Mrs. W. M. Stonestreet went to Kansas City Friday to spend the day.

VICTORY FOR AN ADVENTIST

German Soldier Spent Seven Years in Prison Rather Than Work on Saturdays.

The case of the German soldier Naumann, who as an Adventist refused to work on Saturdays and spent several years in military imprisonment in consequence, has been thrown into the shade by the fanatical obstinacy of another soldier named Mugge, a follower of the same sect.

Naumann put in three years in prison and then changed his mind, agreed to work on Saturdays like the rest of his comrades and is still serving in the ranks. Mugge spent in all seven years in prison for refusal to obey orders and maintained his attitude to the last.

No arguments had the least effect; his position was that where the law of God conflicted with the laws of men the latter had to be disregarded.

Mugge, like Naumann, was examined as to his sanity, but the doctors came to the conclusion that he was in full possession of his faculties. There was every prospect of his remaining in prison for the rest of his life when a change in his circumstances led to his release.

He fell ill, the doctors made a microscopical examination of his blood and finally certified that he was unfit for military service. The result was that one morning Mugge was set free. The kaiser had exercised his right of pardon.—New York Sun.

ADDING PROCESS MADE EASY

How the Little Girl Easily Taught the New Schoolboy to "Carry" a Figure.

An Indianapolis public school teacher some time ago received in her room a small boy from the Kentucky-Tennessee borderland, and she set about teaching him the intricacies of addition. She found he could run up or down a column of figures readily, but she could not make him understand how to "carry" from one column to another when the total was more than nine. Finally the teacher called on one of the little girls in the class and told her she would give her a dime if she could make the newcomer understand the process. Next day the little girl called to claim the money.

"How did you make him see it so quickly?" inquired the teacher.

"Oh, I told him when he got a number of two figures to put down the one on the right and tote the other across, and he knew what I meant right away."—Indianapolis News.

CAUSE ENOUGH.

Mamie—Isn't Mr. Turtell a strange man? He seems to live wholly within himself.

Gladys—Well, it is no wonder he is troubled with indigestion.—Puck.

VERY MUCH SO.

"Does your wife make it a practice to give you a warm welcome home?"

"Quite warm. In fact, she keeps me most of the time in hot water."

FINE TOUCH.

Visitor—Your daughter, er—doesn't seem quite sure which note to strike.

Mrs. Bluffem—Oh, my, no. She plays with a great deal of feeling.

MACHINERY.

Knicker—Interested in machinery?

Bocker—Yes. I want to know how much dark horse power a steam roller can develop.

PROVED.

"I wonder if Jack knows I have money?"

"Has he proposed?"

"Yes."

"He knows."

AT TIMES.

"Do you think selective memories are the best?"

"I don't know about that, but they are mighty handy in an investigation."

WON'T LINGER.

Mother—Mr. Linger spends a great deal of time with you, Ethel.

Daughter—Yes, mamma, but that's all he does spend.

ENGLAND'S LAST FATAL DUEL

Hawkey-Seton Conflict, in Which Latter Fell, Ended Code of Honor in Britain.

It would be difficult to find anybody who remembers the last fatal duel in this country. The date was May 20, 1845, and the place a spot on the shore near Gosport. Lieutenant Hawkey of the Royal Marines, believing Lieutenant Seton had paid too much attention to his wife at a Southsea function, called him a villain and blackguard, threatening to horsewhip him and attempted to kick him.

Although dueling had been forbidden by articles of war in 1844, after the horror caused by the death of Colonel Fawcett at the hands of his brother-in-law, Lieutenant Munro, in 1843, the provocation in the Hawkey-Seton case was such that a meeting resulted. Seton fired and missed. The hammer of Hawkey's pistol being set on the safety notch, it would not go off. At the second discharge Seton fell. Hawkey fled to France.—London Chronicle.

HAD THE GIFT OF TONGUES

Perpetual Candidate in Kentucky Who Always Coined Words as He Needed Them.

There used to be a war veteran in Owen county, Ky., who was always running for office and never getting it. He was a candidate by profession, breeding and instinct. He also had the gift of tongues. When he needed a word and couldn't find it he made up one out of his head and went right on. Once, in delivering an impromptu eulogy over a dead resident of his town, he said of him: "And, finally, our friend was, above all, a man of great migrosity and general understanding throughout the neighborhood."

At another time he was making the race for county judge. He and his opponent were holding a joint debate. He thought some of the other man's statements rather reflected on him, and up he jumped.

"Mr. Green," he demanded, "are you trying to reconiccate upon my feelings?"

"Not at all," said the other man, wondering what reconiccate meant.

"Then, sir, in that case I extend to you the olive branch of peace," said the corner of language.—Saturday Evening Post.

PLEASURE IS ALL HIS.

Gibbs—I hear that Bronson is very happy as an after-dinner speaker.

Dibbs—Possibly, but that's more than can be said for his audience.

CONSISTENCY.

"They say Mrs. Goldster is very consistent in her temperance theories."

"So much so that she will not dress in any but sober colors."

RETORT COURTEOUS.

Mr. Grouch—Women certainly have a mania for getting cheap things.

Miss Gall—I suppose that is why your wife came to marry you.

THESE DAYS.

"Do you believe pride goes before a fall?"

"I'm not so sure that is always the case, but pride frequently goes before a punctured tire."

EASILY STATED.

Mrs. Stone—What is the difference between an investment and a speculation, dear?"

Kirby Stone—If you lose, it's a speculation.—Puck.

MODERN COMPETITION.

"With the good position you had in view why did you break your engagement?"

"My fiancée took the position."—Fliegende Blätter.

GOOD REASON.

Scott—Hobbs is a terribly quarrelsome fellow. He'd rather fight than eat.

Mott—So would I if I had his dyspepsia.

HER STYLE.

"I hear Miss Mayme is quite a pyrotechnic artist."

"Yes. She has talent in that line to burn."

Colorado

is Nature's Big Repair Shop

Your overhauling is due. Your nerves are frazzled. Your sleep brings no rest. Your appetite is an insult to the cook and your digestion is a loafer. You're run down. And why not? How long do you think blood and flesh will submit to the pounding you've given yourself for the last year?

Go out to Colorado and let the hills take you in hand. Take a daily bath in the mountain air, forget your worries and hurries and play for a month. Come back with man power like horse power and make the next eleven months count for twenty-four. It's cheap to get a man who can work like two at the cost of a month's rest. And the round trip fares are low enough for any pocketbook.

Any way of going to Colorado is a good way, because it gets you to Colorado. But the best service is via the

Rock Island Lines

—every day to Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo—

"The Rocky Mountain Limited" daily from Chicago and Omaha and "The Colorado Flyer" daily from St. Louis and Kansas City, are electric-lighted trains of perfect comfort. A delightfully picturesque ride. Just a night on the way. Modern Pullmans, dining and observation cars.

Take the Rock Island Lines from the Nearest Point.

These and other fast daily trains make the "going" to Colorado, Yellowstone Park and the Pacific Coast a part of your vacation. Let me send you our booklet, "Under the Tarquoise Sky," and "Little Journeys in Colorado," and help you plan the best vacation of your life.
